

To get access to shell you need to be connected via VPN with university and run program PuTTY.

To install PuTTY download installer from:

<https://www.chiark.greenend.org.uk/~sgtatham/putty/latest.html>

After running PuTTY, you will see configuration window, insert following values:

Then click Open, you will see console where you will be asked to insert login and password of your university account.